Private Duty/ Bedside Nurse

Job Description

Join our EQC Home Care family and make a lasting impact in the lives of medically fragile and technology-dependent children and adults. At EQC Home Care, we are dedicated to providing exceptional, cost-effective, family-focused care for our clients. Our goal is to meet clients' needs in the nurturing environment of their home, minimizing the impact of the client's condition on the family and respecting the role of the family in the care of the client.

The Private Duty/Bedside Nurse provides nursing services to clients as ordered by their physician. This includes assessing patient health problems, administering nursing care to ill, disabled, convalescent, or injured patients, maintaining vital medical records, implementing nursing care plans, advising patients on health maintenance, and providing guidance about preventative services, such as health screenings and medications.
